Help and Hints

What is your (the student's) PIN?

A Federal Student Aid PIN is a 4-digit numeric code or 6-digit alphabetic code that is uniquely assigned to an individual to access Federal Student Aid Web sites.

The application process is faster if you use your PIN to sign your application electronically. Both you and your parent (if you are dependent) can apply for and use your individual PINs as electronic signatures.

If you do not have a PIN, you may apply for a PIN by clicking "Apply For A PIN."

If you already have a PIN but

- A summary of all changes made will be provided. Please review and ensure the corrections are accurate. Select Next.

- You may submit your changes by electronic signature, using your 4 digit PIN number. If you do not remember your PIN, please go to pin.ed.gov
