

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER BY EARNING YOUR ASSOCIATE DEGREE!

You could be as few as 36 credits away, transfer in your qualifying certificate credits and start working towards your Associate Degree!

At Carrington College we provide flexibility when it comes to earning your degree. Students can begin working in their field after earning their certificate while continuing on the path towards earning their associate degree. Carrington’s Health Studies program, which culminates in an Associate of Science Degree, provides an opportunity for individuals to build on prior education to earn the educational credential that is often needed for advancement.

Online: Degree conferred from Boise, Phoenix, Sacramento, and Spokane
