

Criminal Justice: Corrections

SAN JOSE CAMPUS
ASSOCIATE DEGREE PROGRAM

About The Campus

Carrington College's San Jose campus is located just east of the 101 and north of SR-85 at 5883 Rue Ferrari, Suite 125. The campus occupies 48,800 square feet of space tailored to hands-on training and one-on-one interaction between instructors and students.

Facilities include a 24-chair dental hygiene clinic, a six-chair radiology lab, and a four-chair dental assisting lab. Classrooms with ceiling-mounted LCD projectors and a medical library equipped with EBSCOhost online databases, reference materials, textbooks, and journals. The campus also features a student lounge. Administrative offices offer a variety of student services including enrollment services, career services, and student finance.

About This Program

The Criminal Justice: Corrections program includes instruction in criminal law, evidence collection and preservation, report writing, institutional corrections, physical agility training, defensive tactics, and weaponless defense. While gaining the technical skills required for success in today's criminal justice careers, graduates will be knowledgeable about industry standards for effective written and oral communication.

The program culminates in an Associate of Science degree in Criminal Justice: Corrections.

Enrollment in the Criminal Justice: Corrections program is subject to the approval of the CJ:C Program Director or their designee.

Careers in Criminal Justice: Corrections*

Graduates of Carrington College's Criminal Justice: Corrections program will be qualified to work in many areas including:

- Correctional Officers and Jailers
- Retail Loss Prevention Specialists
- Security Guards
- Social and Human Service Assistants

Applicants for jobs in the criminal justice field may be subject to pre-employment screenings such as, but not limited to, criminal background checks, drug and/or alcohol testing, physical and/or psychological examinations and credit checks. Unsatisfactory screening results may disqualify an applicant for a position in the criminal justice field. Additional government-required training programs or years of relevant experience may be necessary to obtain employment in this field.*

Knowledge and Skills

Upon completion of the Criminal Justice: Corrections program graduates will be able to:

- Explain the history, theories and relationship of corrections and the criminal justice system.
- Apply definitions and theories of crime and criminal codes to the criminal justice systems.
- Analyze criminal cases using knowledge of rules of investigation, interrogation, and evidence.
- Examine the concepts of morality, ethics, and law and apply the philosophies within the criminal justice system.
- Write a complete, competent and relevant report.
- Handle inmates appropriately both verbally and physically incorporating Title 15 regulations.
- Use a firearm safely and demonstrate appropriate arrest, search and seizure techniques.
- Relate and apply concepts of communication, reasoning, critical analysis, ethical behavior and appropriate interpersonal interaction to situations in his or her career and personal life.
- Demonstrate Critical Thinking, Communication, Collaboration and Professionalism.
